Recent Works

Picture poems from many decades ago pre-post-noir Neuage

I love you too

My Queen

Your nails

I changed my looks

Children playing with guns

The day I rode my horse out of town

We are at the start of a new day of sin

When only clowns criminals lovers wore masks

Because you glow in the dark

Playing by the Sea

Children never grow old

Museum of misplaced love

Too many mornings to believe

I promised you the world

Wild women chanting

I knew you desired me

You in my dream

I fell in love with a statue

Your Breathing

Neuage View

I painted the evening sky

When We Sleep

Trucks on your body

Being senile

About Dr. Terrell Neuage

Dr. Terrell Neuage is an innovative poet working at the intersection of visual art and literary expression. Based in Adelaide, Australia, his work explores the depths of human experience through the unique lens of Post-Neo-Noir poetry.

His poetry collections span decades of creative exploration, from the foundational Noir Neuage series through Neo-Noir Neuage to the contemporary Post Neo-Noir Neuage—a body of work that reflects the evolution of both his artistic vision and our changing world.

Known for his "picture poems," Dr. Neuage creates works that blend visual elements with literary craft, producing pieces that challenge traditional boundaries between poetry and visual art. His recent work, created since the Covid pandemic, responds to contemporary global events while maintaining his distinctive voice and experimental approach.
